Investment Rate of Return

The investment returns reflect the investment performance of the Participating Fund only. It does not reflect the actual return you will receive and past performance is not an indication of future performance. The actual return you will receive is determined by the actual bonuses paid out by us.

For the Participating Fund, the past investment rates of return (after deducting investment expenses only) are as follows:

	2022	2023	2024	Average of last 3 years	Average of last 5 years	Average of last 10 years

Please note that past performance may not be indicative of future performance.

Total Expense Ratio

The Total Expense Ratio is the proportion of total expenses incurred by the Participating Fund to the assets of the Participating Fund. These expenses include costs such as investment, management, distribution, tax and other expenses.

An expected level of expenses to be incurred by the Participating Fund has been allowed for in the premiums payable for your policy and is not an additional cost to you. If the actual level of expenses varies significantly from the expected level of expenses, it may affect the non-guaranteed benefits you may receive.

For the Participating Fund, the past Total Expense Ratios are as follows:

	2022	2023	2024	Average of last 3 years	Average of last 5 years	Average of last 10 years

Potential Risks

Your benefits depend on the performance of the Participating Fund which may be influenced by the following risks:

- Investment Risk - this includes volatility in market prices, credit risk, liquidity risk, and currency risk (where applicable). The extent of exposure to investment risk depends on the asset allocation and the nature of the investments undertaken.
- Insurance Risk - this includes death, disability and other claim risks where the amount and/or frequency of claim are higher than expected.
- Expense Risk - this is the risk that management and/or distribution expenses incurred are higher than expected.
- Persistency Risk - this is the risk that actual lapse experience differs from expected and results in a loss to the Participating Fund.
- Miscellaneous Risk - this could include risks related to regulatory changes, tax and operations.

Risk Sharing

Premiums from all participating policies are combined and invested in the Participating Fund. All policies written within the same product group in the Participating Fund will share in the overall experience and performance of the Participating Fund, which enables risks to be pooled and diversified. The key risks that the Participating Fund is subjected to include investment risk, duration mis-match risk, insurance risk, expense risk, persistency risk and miscellaneous risk.

In determining the level of bonus, we aim to be fair to all participating policyholders and consider the assets available to back your policy, derived by accumulating the premiums paid at the actual rate of investment return less the expenses incurred, cost of insurance, commissions paid and other costs that may be incurred in managing the Participating Fund.

Smoothing of Benefits

One of the key features of participating policies is that your benefits may be smoothed to ensure stable long-term returns, by spreading surpluses and losses across the years.

We take into account the current performance as well as the future outlook for the Participating Fund in determining the level of bonus for your policy. Bonus rates may therefore vary according to the future performance of the Participating Fund.

Past Bonus Rates

Terminal Bonus

The terminal bonuses paid out over the past 3 years (or shorter if the plan was launched later) are consistent with the terminal bonus rates illustrated at the investment rate of return of 4.25% p.a. stated in the section on Bonuses under Plan Benefit.

Fees and Charges

The policy shares in the experience of the Participating Fund. Hence, a portion of your premiums is also used to cover for expenses charged to the Participating Fund.

Examples of such expenses include:

- distribution costs
- commissions
- management expenses such as policy issuance and claims expenses
- overhead expenses

Such overhead expenses will be allocated on a consistent basis according to the nature of the activity to ensure that the Participating Fund bears no more than its fair share of expenses.

The fees and charges mentioned above are included in the premium and will not be separately charged to you.

Impact on Early Surrender

As buying a life insurance policy is a long-term commitment, an early termination of the policy usually involves high costs and the surrender value, if any, that is payable to you may be zero or less than the total premiums paid. Please refer to the Policy Illustration for the illustrated surrender value you will receive if you intend to surrender your policy early.

Update on Performance

You will receive the Participating Fund Update, which provides information on the performance of the Participating Fund, by end of September each year.

Conflict of Interests

There is no known conflict of interests. We manage the Participating Fund according to our Par Governance Policy, which is approved by the Board of Directors. The Participating Fund is also audited by independent external auditors annually.

Related Party Transactions
