Fees and Charges

Initial Charge

During the minimum contribution period, an initial charge of 3.0% p.a. of the Initial Units Account value will be deducted monthly on each Policy Monthiversary* through deduction of units from the Initial Units Account based on the unit price on the next pricing day following the Policy Monthiversary.

We will continue to deduct for the initial charge during premium holiday.

Policy Monthiversary means the same day as the commencement date in monthly intervals from the commencement date. If the day of the commencement is not present in a relevant calendar month, the last day of that calendar month will be treated as the Policy Monthiversary.*

Policy Charge

As long as the policy is in-force, a policy charge of 1.35% p.a. of the Accumulation Units Account value will be deducted monthly on each Policy Monthiversary through deduction of units based on the unit price on the next pricing day following the Policy Monthiversary.

We will continue to deduct for the policy charge during premium holiday.

Monthly Protection Charge ("MPC")

A MPC will be levied during the minimum contribution period if the Advanced Death Benefit is selected by you. The MPC for the first three (3) policy years will be accrued and deducted from the Accumulation Units Account in one lump sum in the fourth policy year.

From the fourth policy year, the MPC will be deducted monthly in advance from the Accumulation Units Account. The MPC will be calculated based on the sum at risk, using the MPC rates based on the age and sex of the oldest life assured in the policy on each Policy Monthiversary. If there are two (2) or more life assureds with the same birth date and of different sex, the MPC rates based on the male will be used. The MPC rates are shown in the Appendix A - Monthly Rates for Monthly Protection Charges (For Death). The sum at risk is calculated based on the prevailing unit price on the Policy Monthiversary.

The MPC rates are not guaranteed.

We will calculate the number of units to be deducted based on the prevailing unit price on the Policy Monthiversary. The units will be sold at the unit price of the next pricing day. Due to market fluctuation, the Unit Price at which the units are sold may differ from the unit price used to calculate the MPC payable. As such, the actual MPC amount deducted may be different.

If there is insufficient Accumulation Units Account Value to deduct the MPC, we will deduct any outstanding MPC from the Initial Units Account and/or Top-up Units Account. The policy will terminate when there is insufficient Policy Value to deduct any outstanding MPC.

We will continue to deduct for the MPC during premium holiday.

Sum at risk for the basic plan is the Net Premium paid converted (where applicable) into the policy currency using a premium conversion factor as determined by us from time to time at our discretion, less 101% of the Initial Units Account Value and 101% of Accumulation Units Account Value. In the event that 101% of the Initial Units Account Value and 101% of Accumulation Units Account Value is greater than or equal to Net Premium, sum at risk will be zero.*

Premium Charge for Top-up Premium and/or Recurring Single Premium

A 5% premium charge will be imposed on each recurring single premium and/or top-up premium. This charge will be deducted prior to the allocation of the recurring single premium and/or top-up premium to purchase Top-up units and allocated to the Top-up Units Account.

Administrative Charge

Nil

Surrender Charge

A surrender charge will be levied upon the surrender on or before the end of the minimum contribution period.

The Surrender Charge is calculated by multiplying the Initial Units Account Value by the applicable surrender charge rate depending on the policy year at the point of surrender. The surrender charge will be deducted in calculating the surrender value of this policy.

The surrender charge rates are shown in the Appendix A - Surrender Charge.

Partial Withdrawal Charge

A partial withdrawal charge will be levied upon any partial withdrawal from the Accumulation Units Account on or before the end of the minimum contribution period.

The partial withdrawal charge is calculated by multiplying the partial withdrawal amount by the applicable percentage.

The partial withdrawal amount requested net of the partial withdrawal charge will be paid to you.

The partial withdrawal charge rates are shown in the Appendix A - Partial Withdrawal Charge.

Premium Shortfall Charge

A premium shortfall charge will be levied monthly when:

- (i) a premium holiday is in effect; or
- (ii) there is a reduction in annualised regular premium payable by you to an amount lesser than that committed by you at commencement date, at any time in the first ten (10) policy years.

The premium shortfall charge will be deducted from the Accumulation Units Account monthly in advance.

The premium shortfall charge payable will be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

- (i) In the case of premium holiday, premium shortfall charge = $OP / 12 \times SC$
- (ii) In the case of reduction in regular premium payable, premium shortfall charge = $(OP - NP) / 12 \times SC$

Where,

OP	=	annualised regular premium committed by you at the commencement date.
NP	=	new annualised regular premium amount payable after reduction.
SC	=	respective premium shortfall charge percentage for the applicable policy.

In the event that the premium shortfall charge is payable for a premium holiday and reduction in regular premium, the higher amount will be imposed.

We will calculate the number of units to be deducted from the Accumulation Units Account value at the prevailing unit price on the Policy Monthiversary. The units will be sold at the unit price on the next pricing day. Due to market fluctuation, the Unit Price at which the Units are sold may differ from the unit price used to calculate the premium shortfall charge payable. As such, the actual premium shortfall charge amount deducted may be different.

If the Accumulation Units Account has insufficient value to deduct any premium shortfall charge due, we will deduct any outstanding premium shortfall charge from the Initial Units Account and/or Top-up Units Account. The policy will terminate when there is insufficient policy value to deduct any outstanding premium shortfall charge.

The premium shortfall charge will cease to be levied:

- (i) in the case of premium shortfall charge payable for a premium holiday, you resume payment of regular premium; or

E & O E

- (ii) in the case of premium shortfall charge payable for a reduction in the regular premium amount payable, when the regular premium is increased up to the annualised regular premium committed at commencement date.

We reserve the right to terminate or suspend the top-up premiums, partial withdrawal and fund switch at our discretion. We shall not be responsible for any losses whatsoever arising from or attributable to our decision to suspend or terminate these facilities.

Past performance is not an indication of future performance of the fund. Investments are subjected to investment and foreign exchange risks, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested.

This Product Summary does not form a part of any contract of insurance. It is intended only to be a simplified description of the product features applicable to this plan and is not exhaustive. The contents of this Product Summary may vary from the terms of cover eventually issued. Please refer to the Policy Contract for all terms and conditions, including exclusions whereby the benefits under your policy may not be paid out. You are advised to read the Policy Contract.
